Dear Client:

We are pleased to confirm our understanding of the arrangements for your income tax return(s). Please read this letter carefully because it is important for you to understand and accept the terms under which we have agreed to perform our services, as well as your responsibilities under this agreement.

The Internal Revenue Service imposes penalties on taxpayers, and on us as return preparers, for failure to observe due care in reporting for income tax returns. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask all clients for whom we prepare tax returns to confirm the following arrangements.

We will prepare your 2020 Federal and Resident State (if applicable) individual income tax forms from information you furnish us. We will not audit, review, compile or otherwise verify the data you submit, although we may ask you to clarify some of the information. We will provide you with a tax organizer and questionnaire to help you gather and organize the necessary information for us, in order to keep our fee to a minimum. If you have taxable activity in a state other than your resident state, you are responsible for providing our firm with all information necessary to prepare any additional applicable state(s) or local income tax returns.

We are responsible for preparing the specific individual income tax forms for the specified reporting agencies listed in this letter. We are happy to provide additional services, but we will need to complete a separate engagement letter for those additional services.

If you have derived income from or have assets in a foreign country, we will use the foreign country income information which you provide to calculate any applicable federal or state foreign tax credit or other affected federal or state income tax items. However, you are responsible for meeting any foreign country income tax or other foreign country reporting requirements. The IRS and other government agencies require disclosure of non-US assets and impose steep penalties for failing to report. You must make us aware of all assets not owned within the United States. Without your notification of such foreign assets, we will assume that you do not have any.

Our fees are based on standard rates and the complexity of your tax return(s), and includes out-of-pocket costs, processing and technology fees. Unless previous billing arrangements have been agreed upon, we will electronically file your return once we receive your signed e-file Signature Authorization forms and payment for our services.

Invoices become delinquent if not paid within 30 days of the invoice date. Invoices that are over 30 days past due will be charged a service charge of 1.5% per month. If you have a delinquent balance, we may need to stop work at our discretion until your account is brought current, or we may withdraw from the engagement. You acknowledge and agree that we are not required to continue work in the event of your failure to pay on a timely basis for services rendered, as required by this engagement letter. You further acknowledge and agree that in the event we stop work or withdraw from this engagement as a result of your failure to pay on a timely basis for services rendered, as required by this engagement letter, we shall not be liable to you for any damages that occur as a result of our ceasing to render services. Our services will conclude upon delivery of the completed income tax returns discussed above, or upon our suspension of services, or resignation from the engagement.

In recognition of the relative risks and benefits to this agreement to both the client and the accounting firm, the client and the accounting firm have discussed and have agreed on the fair allocation of risk between them. As such, the client agrees, to the fullest extent possible, to limit the liability of our firm to the client for any and all claims, losses, costs, and damages of any nature whatsoever, so that the total aggregate liability of the accounting firm to the client shall not exceed the accounting firm's total fee for services rendered under this agreement. The client and the accounting firm intend and agree that this limitation apply to any and all liability or cause of action against the accounting firm, however alleged or arising, unless otherwise prohibited by law. Both parties agree that there is a 1-year limitation period to bring a claim against us for errors and omissions. The 1-year period will begin upon the date of the tax returns covered by this engagement letter.

This engagement letter represents the entire agreement regarding the services described herein and supersedes all prior negotiations, proposals, representations or agreements, written or oral, regarding these services. It shall be binding on the heirs, successors and assigns of you and us.

It is your responsibility to maintain, in your records, the documentation necessary to support the data used in preparing your tax returns, including but not limited to auto, travel, entertainment, and related expenses, and the required documents to support charitable contributions. If you have questions about the type of records required, please ask us for advice. It is also your responsibility to carefully examine and approve your completed tax returns before signing the electronic filing form or mailing the returns. We are not responsible for the disallowance of doubtful deductions or inadequately supported documentation, nor for resulting taxes, penalties and interest. We will rely, without further verification, upon information you provide to us from third parties including, but not limited to, K1s, 1099s, 1098s, and receipts and similar items.

We do not automatically file tax extensions on your behalf. You must notify us if you would like us to file an extension. The notification should include your estimate of any balance due with the extension. Or, at your request and when all pertinent tax documents are provided, we will assist with the calculation. Failure to file an extension may cause you to be subject to various penalties and interest if your return is not filed by the tax return due date. Additionally, an extension does not relieve you from paying the tax due on the due date or making quarterly estimated tax payments for the current year. Failure to pay any tax due with the extension or failure to pay quarterly estimated tax payments may make you subject to various penalties and interest.

We will use our professional judgment in preparing your returns. Whenever we are aware that a tax law is unclear or that there are conflicting interpretations of the law by authorities (e.g., tax agencies and courts), we will explain the possible positions that may be taken on your return. We will adopt whatever position you request on your return, so long as it is consistent with the codes, regulations, and interpretations that have been promulgated. If the Internal Revenue Service should later contest the position taken, there may be an assessment of additional tax plus interest and penalties. We assume no liability for any such additional penalties or assessments. When a self-employed taxpayer reduces taxable income there is also a reduction in earned income reported to the Social Security Administration, which could reduce current and future benefits for the taxpayer or his or her dependents. You acknowledge and agree to the current tax reduction and the potential negative effects on future social security benefits for you, your spouse and any dependents.

Privacy laws established by the IRS effective January 1, 2009 prohibit us from providing confidential information or copies to anyone other than you without your specific, written authorization. We maintain very high standards to keep your information confidential and use our best efforts to keep all confidential information secure. While our policies many times exceed the minimum confidentiality standards in accordance with our obligations under applicable laws and professional standards, you recognize and accept that we have no control over the unauthorized interception of information once it has been sent to you or third parties at your direction.

If we are asked to disclose any privileged communication, unless we are required to disclose the communication by law, we will not provide such disclosure until you have had an opportunity to argue that the communication is privileged. You agree to pay any and all reasonable expenses that we incur, including legal fees, that are a result of attempts to protect any communication as privileged. In addition, your confidentiality privilege can be inadvertently waived if you discuss the contents of any privileged communication with a third party, such as a lending institution, a friend, or a business associate. We recommend that you contact us before releasing information to a third party.

It is our policy to keep records related to this engagement for seven years, after which they are destroyed. However, we do not keep any original client records; we will return those to you at the completion of the services rendered under this engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect your records for possible future use, including potential examination by any government or regulatory agencies.

From time to time during our relationship, you may seek our advice with regard to potential investments. We are not licensed investment advisors. While we are happy to provide advice on investments, we also suggest that you seek the advice of qualified investment advisors appropriate to each investment being considered.

We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to serve you and appreciate your confidence in our firm; we will work hard for you. Please sign and date this letter to acknowledge your agreement with and acceptance of your responsibilities and the terms of this engagement. It is our policy to initiate services after we receive the executed engagement letter. If any provision of this agreement is declared invalid or unenforceable, no other provision of this agreement is affected, and all other provisions remain in full force and effect.

Sincerely,

DONOVAN

I have read the above terms of the engagement letter and agree with the terms of this engagement.

PRIVACY POLICY

CPAs, like all providers of personal financial services, are now required by law to inform their clients of their policies regarding privacy of client information. CPAs have been and continue to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law. Therefore, we have always protected your right to privacy.

TYPES OF NONPUBLIC PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect nonpublic personal information about you that is either provided to us by you or obtained by us with your authorization.

PARTIES TO WHOM WE DISCLOSE INFORMATION

For current and former clients, we do not disclose any nonpublic personal information obtained in the course of our practice except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees and, in limited situations, to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to you. In all such situations, we stress the confidential nature of information being shared.

PROTECTING THE CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY OF CURRENT AND FORMER CLIENTS' INFORMATION

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.
